Student Life

Come on along with us. We're going on a tour. No, we wouldn't take you on just any tour. This one's very special. Come on. Let's go. We're taking a tour of a place called Student Life. Sounds exciting, doesn't it. Here are the places we'll be seeing along the way:

INTRODUCTORY (just five miles north of Contradictory)	1
ATHLETICS (People here have that rosy-cheeked look.)	19
ORGANIZATIONS (Folks here aren't so stodgy as you might think.)	31
ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY (These, of course, are the famous twin cities.)	51
ALBUM (It's in Alabama.)	63
ADVERTISING (You've all heard, no doubt, of the most famous street here: Madison Avenue)	107

Well, now that you have an idea of what you're going to see, what are you waiting for? Fasten your seat belt because we're ready to take off. WHOOOOOOSSSSSSHHHHHH

SENIORS SAY

HAIL

TO THE

COLTS

“Life With Father”

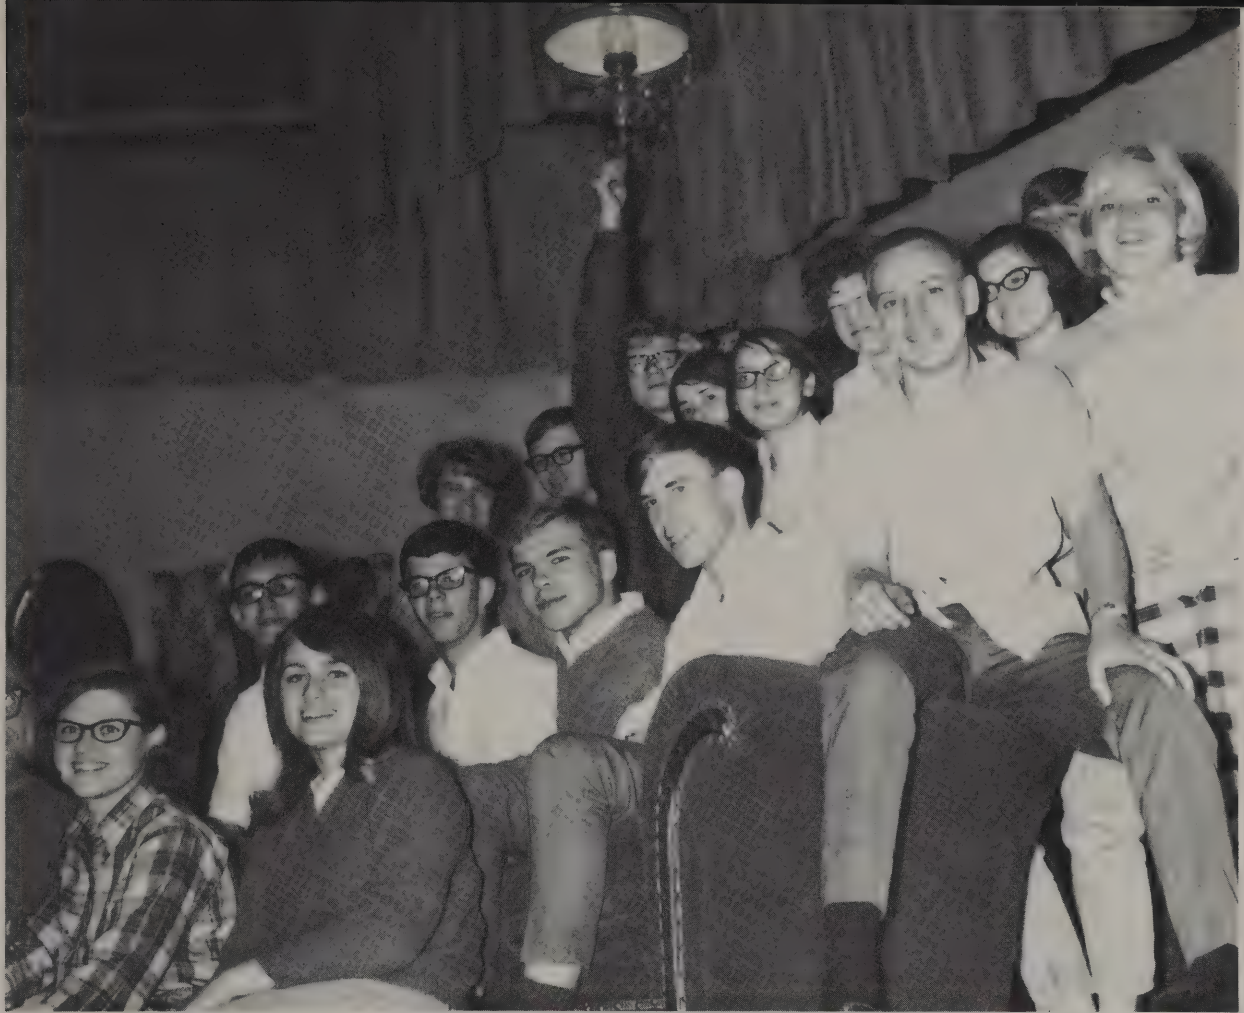

The maid (Sandy Avery) serves Mr. and Mrs. Day (Penny Smith and Roger Briggs) tea.

Thanks to the expert direction of Mrs. Floy Work and her assistants, Bob Corbet and Becky Hoge, "Life with Father" was a huge success.

Mother talks with the minister (Richard Blevins) about her son's catechism and her husband's baptism.

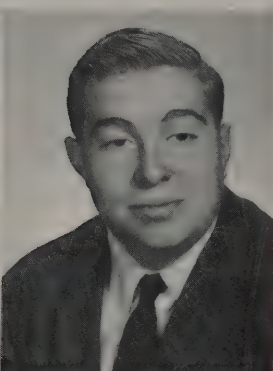

STAGE CREW: (sitting in FRONT) Earl Gordon, Barb Meek, Becky Botsch; (on couch) Bill Fahler, Rick Hewit, Dan Anderson, Jim Sheppard, Bill Minerich; (STANDING) Dean-a Huffman, Harry Feesler, Jeff Gardner, Linda Neptune, Jackie Hamey, Linda Norton, Kay Fauss, Dan Byers, Peggy Hamey.

Sue Palmer, Linda Leatherman, Dan Anderson, and Jim Sheppard wait in the wings as the dress rehearsal for "Life with Father" proceeds.

Commencement

A black and white photograph of a landscape. The foreground is a dark, flat field. In the middle ground, there is a line of bare, leafless trees. The sky is filled with heavy, dark clouds. The overall mood is somber and reflective.

Let Us Remember

Mr. Clayton Carleton

Lance Corporal Richard Fisher

Senator Robert Francis Kennedy

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
